Session, 1947, Senate Bill 215, and Acts 50th Legislature, Regular Session, 1947, House Bill 528, and specifically repealing Articles 2844 and 2844a, as amended in Acts, 1937, 45th
Legislature, page 329, Chapter 67, Section 1, providing for a multiple list of free textbooks in the elementary grades in specified subjects; providing for a multiple list of free textbooks in high school grades for certain subjects, providing for the addition of subjects in the elementary and high school grades for which free textbooks are to be supplied and the conditions under which such books are to be added to the list of free
textbooks, authorizing the State Board of Education to prescribe specific rules under which such books are to be selected, introduced, and used in local school systems, providing that existing contracts may not be affected by adoptions under this Act, and declaring an emergency."

(With amendments)

legal representative of A. F. Martin, deceased, permission to bring suit against the State of Texas.

Respectfully submitted,

CLARENCE JONES,

Chief Clerk, House of Representatives.

House Concurrent Resolution 136

On motion of Senator Carney and by unanimous consent, the regular order of business was suspended to take up for consideration at this time:

H. C. R. No. 136, Instructing the Enrolling Clerk of the House to make certain corrections in H. J. R. No. 19.

The resolution was read and was adopted.

House Bill 420 on Second Reading

The Presiding Officer laid before the Senate as a special order for this hour, on its second reading and passage to third reading:

H. B. No. 420, A bill to be entitled
"An Act regulating the use of hormone type weed killers; providing for the promulgation and enforcement of regulations by the Commissioner of Agriculture of the State of Texas;
providing for permits and licenses
for dealers and users thereof; defining the type of regulations to be promulgated; fixing the penalty; repealing all laws and parts of laws in conflict; providing a severability clause; and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Senator Phillips offered the following committee amendment to the bill:

(Committee Amendment No. 1)

Amend H. B. No. 420 by inserting the following section immediately
after Section 5b:

"Section 5c. This Act shall not be effective at this time in any county in this State north and northwest of the southernmost boundaries of Andrews, Martin, Howard, Mitchell, Nolan, Taylor, Callahan, and Eastland Counties, and the easternmost boundary line of a portion of Eastland County, and the counties of Stephens and Young; and the southernmost boundary and the easternmost boundary of Clay County; it being the intention of the Legislature that all of the counties named shall be exempted from the provisions of this Act, as herein provided, and all counties of Texas north and west of said named counties shall also be exempted from the provisions of this Act; because it is found to be a fact that there is now
no crop or vegetation of value susceptible to damage in this area; provided, however, when any crop or vegetation of value that is susceptible to damage exists in any county in this area, which fact shall be determined by the Commissioners' Court of the affected county, evidenced by an appropriate order entered in the minutes of the court, this Act shall be in full force and effect in that county immediately upon the entrance of said order. Before any such order shall be entered by a Commissioners' Court, the court shall first give notice in at least one newspaper in said county ten (10) days prior to a hearing on this matter. Any interested person may appeal to the district court to test the reasonableness of the fact finding of the Commissioners' Court within twenty (20) days from entrance of the order, in which case the rules and procedure governing appeals from orders of the Railroad Commission of Texas shall be followed, the 'substantial evidence rule' shall apply, and appeals may be taken as in other civil cases."

The committee amendment was adopted.

Senator Vick offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House Bill No. 420, Section 5 (a), by adding at the end of said Section the following:

"It is further provided that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to the bona fide sale or use of 2,4-D or other hormone-type herbicides on and for lawns and home gardens in containers of a capacity of not larger than one quart liquid measure or two pounds dry measure."

The amendment was adopted.

Senator Phillips offered the following committee amendment to the bill:

(Committee Amendment No. 2)

Amend H. B. 420 by striking out everything above the enacting clause and inserting the following in lieu thereof:

H. B. No. 420, A bill to be entitled "An Act regulating the sale and use of 2, 4-D, and all other hormone type herbicides; providing for the licensing of dealers therein and the licensing and bonding of users thereof with certain exceptions; defining terms; defining the types of regulations to be promulgated; providing certain areas to be exempt from the provisions of this Act so long as they contain no crops susceptible to damage; providing for the promulgation of rules and regulations governing the sale and use of said chemicals by the Commissioner of Agriculture of the State of Texas; fixing a penalty; repealing all laws and parts of laws in conflict; providing a severability clause; and declaring an emergency."

The committee amendment was adopted.

Senator Hardeman offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend H. B. No. 420, as amended, by exempting from its provisions all those counties comprising the 25th Senatorial District.

The amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Vick and by unanimous consent, the caption was amended to conform with the body of the bill as amended.

The bill was passed to third reading.

House Bill 420 on Third Reading

H. J. R. No. 32, Proposing an amendment to Article I of the Constitution of the State of Texas, by adding thereto another Section following Section 15, providing that the Legislature may provide for trials in lunacy cases without a jury; further providing for the submission of this amendment to the voters of this State; prescribing the form of ballot; providing for the proclamation and publication thereof.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article I of the Constitution of the State of Texas be and the same is hereby amended by adding another section thereto following Section 15, to be designated Section 15-a, to read as follows:

"Section 15-a. The Legislature shall have the authority to enact all laws necessary to provide for the trial, adjudication of insanity and commitment of persons of unsound mind and to provide for a method of appeal from judgments rendered in such cases. Such laws may provide for waiver of trial by jury in cases where the person under inquiry has not been charged with the commission of a criminal offense, and shall provide for a method of service of notice of such trial upon the person under inquiry and of his right to demand a trial by jury."

Section 2. That the foregoing Constitutional amendment be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held throughout the State on the fourth Saturday in September, A.D., 1949, at which election all ballots shall be printed thereon:

"FOR the amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas providing that the Legislature may provide for trials without a jury in lunacy cases" and

"AGAINST the amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas providing that the Legislature may provide for trials without a jury in lunacy cases." Each voter shall scratch out one of said clauses on the ballot, leaving the one expressing his vote on the proposed amendment. In counties or other subdivisions using voting machines, the above provision for voting for and against this Constitutional amendment shall be placed on said machine in such a manner that each voter shall vote on such machine for or against the Constitutional amendment.

Section 3. That the Governor of the State of Texas issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

House Joint Resolution 4 on Second Reading

The President laid before the Senate on its second reading and passage to third reading:

H. J. R. No. 4, Proposing an amendment to Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas, by adopting a new Section to be known as Section 51-b, which shall provide that the Legislature shall have the power to provide, under such limitations and restrictions and regulations as may be deemed by the Legislature expedient, for assistance to needy physically or mentally handicapped individuals, who are not eligible for Old Age Assistance, Aid to the Needy Blind, or Aid to Dependent Children; providing that the Legislature shall have the authority to accept from the Government of the United States and other sources financial aid for such physically or mentally handicapped individuals, and providing for anticipatory legislation; providing that all persons qualifying under the provisions hereof shall have been bona fide residents for a period of five (5) consecutive years; and providing for the necessary proclamation, publication and election.

The resolution was read second time.

Senator Moore offered the following amendment to the resolution:

An amendment to amend House Joint Resolution No. 4 by striking out all below the resolving clause and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto a Section to be known as Section 51-b which shall read as follows:

" 'Section 51-b. The Legislature shall have the power by general laws to provide, under such limitations and restrictions and regulations as may be deemed by the Legislature expedient, for assistance to physically or mentally handicapped individuals, who are totally and permanently disabled, who are in need, who are not eligible for Old Age Assistance, Aid to the Needy Blind, or Aid to Dependent Children, and who are residents of the State of Texas, except that any resident of the State who is otherwise eligible may not be excluded who has resided in the State for five (5) years during the nine (9) years immediately preceding the application for such assistance including the one (1) year continuously immediately preceding such application.

" 'The Legislature shall have the authority to accept from the Government of the United States such financial aid for physically or mentally handicapped individuals as that Government may offer not inconsistent with the restrictions herein provided; and providing further that should the Legislature enact an enabling law and provide an appropriation in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment, such acts shall not be invalid by reason of their anticipatory character.'

"Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Texas on September 24, 1949, at which election there shall be printed on such ballot the following clause:

"'FOR the amendment giving the Legislature the power to provide for assistance to physically or mentally handicapped individuals who are totally and permanently disabled and who are in need, and to accept from the Government of the United States financial aid for such physically or mentally handicapped individuals, and providing for anticipatory legislation.'

"'AGAINST the amendment giving the Legislature the power to provide for assistance to physically or mentally handicapped individuals who are totally and permanently disabled and who are in need, and to accept from the Government of the United States financial aid for such physically or mentally handicapped individuals, and providing for anticipatory legislation.'

"Section 3. Proclamation. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and shall have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of the State.

"Section 4. Expenses. The sum of _____ ($_____) Dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated out of the funds of the Treasury of the State, not otherwise appropriated, to pay expenses of such publication and election."

Senator Morris offered the following amendment to the amendment:

Amend H. J. R. No. 4 by striking out the words "who are totally and permanently disabled," wherever they appear, and substituting in lieu thereof the following: "who, because of their physical and mental disability, are unable to engage in a means of livelihood and who have no means of support from any other source."

Question—Shall the amendment to the amendment be adopted?

Senator Cousins moved to recommit the resolution to the Committee on Constitutional Amendments.

Senator Moore moved to lay the resolution on the table subject to call.

Question first recurring on the motion of Senator Moore, it prevailed.
